

Parents' Newsletter 24

Tuesday 15th July 2025

Dear Parents/Carers,

Reports

By now you should have received your child's school report for this academic year. Thank you for all of the feedback that you have provided. Don't forget there will be an opportunity for you to look through your child's books on Wednesday 16th July from 3.20pm – 4.30pm.

Parent Workshop with Emily Sleep

Thank you to Emily from Solent Mind who ran an information session for parents on Tuesday. If you were able to come along, we hope that you found the session useful.

Stakeholder Evaluations

Many thanks to everyone who has already completed the parents' questionnaire for this academic year. It has been lovely to read all of your comments and hear about the home learning activities that many of you do with your children alongside the topics that we enjoy at school. We will provide a summary of responses at the end of term.

Thank you Cream Tea

Well done to the children in Chestnut class who made some delicious scones for our Thank you Cream Tea last week.

Year 1 Listen2Me Concert

We were very impressed by the children in Year 1 last who performed exceptionally well in their samba drumming concert. You were amazing!

Miss Constance from Hampshire Music Service will be returning in the Autumn term to teach the children in Years 1 and 2 tuned percussion lessons.

Arts and Crafts

Our wonderful PTFA have funded an art and craft session with Debbie Wakefield this term that links in with our core value 'Hope'. The children have decorated ceramic doves and have decided on a hope for the future that will be written on the back.

Fundraising Afternoon

Don't forget, on Thursday 17th July the School Council are organising a fundraising event for the class charities. Your child is invited to bring a pound in twenty pence pieces into school to spend on the stalls.
